Santa Rosa's downtown is a great place to visit anyway -- with its newly renovated streetscape, antique lighting, courthouse square, gazebo/stage, and more.

Festival events begin with Friday (September 11) with a Youth Dance with DJ music and a performance by local college-hopping rap ensemble "The First Committee;" a mechanical bull ride, a surfboard simulation ride and a shark slide; championship cage fights; and fun, fun and prizes. Tickets will be sold at City Hall, the Visitor Center and at Mero's Route 66 Auto Repair and Wrecker.

Rally registration begins at 8 a.m. Saturday (September 12). Run stops include Sun n' Sand, Silver Moon, Joseph's, Route 66 Auto Museum, the Pecos Bar in Santa Rosa, Santa Rosa Lake, the Alexander Grezlachowski territorial house in Puerto de Luna, and the Bosque Redondo State Monument in Fort Sumner. The rally registration booth and finish line will be in front of Wells Fargo Bank in the downtown.

Additional activities include the popular Wild West Shootout (Billy the Kid re-enactment in Puerto de Luna with two performances by the New Mexico Gunfighters Association).
